

& BARHAM BOOK CLUB

Would like to welcome you to Barham Community Library for
"Passage to Britain"

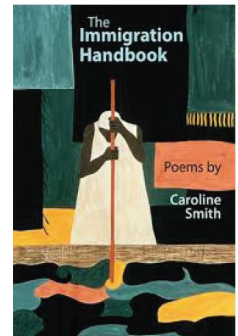

An Evening of Poetry and Personal Experience, about immigration and exile and places of safety and welcome.

With Local Residents:

Caroline Smith, poet,

will read from her book,
The Immigration Handbook, shortlisted for
The Ted Hughes Award for
New Work in Poetry 2016

& Paul Lorber

(needing no introduction to Sudbury residents, & users & supporters of Barham Community Library) will speak of his experience as an immigrant from Czechoslovakia in 1968

& Beth Gardiner-Smith, CEO, will speak about the work of Safe Passage International, a Charity that exists to help
unaccompanied child refugees and adults find safe,
legal routes to sanctuary.

TUESDAY JANUARY 8TH 6:45PM FOR 7PM
at BARHAM COMMUNITY LIBRARY

UNIT 4 BARHAM PARK BUILDINGS 660 HARROW RD, WEMBLEY, BRENT HA0 2HB

BUSES 18, 92, 182, 204 AND H17 STOP NEARBY Free Car parking

To reserve your free ticket, call Gaynor (07801 058882) or Paul (07917 094239), or email barhamlibrary@hotmail.co.uk